BAKE SALE

Grab your mixing bowls and switch on the oven to help beat cancer sooner with this bake sale fundraising pack.
WHISKS AT THE READY!

Holding a Race for Life bake sale is a piece of cake. It’s an easy way to raise those extra pennies to add towards your fundraising total and gives you a chance to show off culinary skills which even Mary Berry would be proud of.

We’ve worked with Tesco, our partner, to bring you some easy step-by-step recipes which won’t cost a fortune. In this pack you will also find a poster to advertise your bake sale, cake flags to price your prized creations and bunting to decorate.

If you sold 10 cakes at £2 each, this could buy a lab coat, box of gloves and goggles for our scientists – not only geek chic, but these vital items help them to carry out their life-saving research.

TOP TIPS FOR FUNDRAISING SUCCESS

• Choose a venue
  Your workplace, community hall or home are all excellent places to host your bake sale and are free!

• Promote your bake sale
  Use the poster in this pack to let everyone know your reason for raising money for Race for Life.

• The more the merrier
  Print off the recipes and share with friends and family so they can bring their baked goods along too. The more baked goods, the more donations you will receive.

• Decorate
  Use the name tags in this pack to note the ingredients and alert anyone with allergies. You could also decorate a glass jar for you to put your collections in.

• Gift Aid
  Make sure that Gift Aid is not claimed on the money paid for cakes at your cake sale, as these are not donations as far as Gift Aid is concerned. Donations you receive where your supporters get nothing in return are eligible for Gift Aid, if they are made by a UK taxpayer. Get your supporters to complete your sponsorship form and claim Gift Aid where they can. It will help you raise more money for Cancer Research UK.

• Use social media
  Create an event on Facebook and use Twitter to let the world know you’re holding a bake sale.

• Make it a competition
  You could make it into a competition and ask everyone to vote on the winning bake. The competition is sure to entice guests to bring along their best baked goods.
